

JillMarie Wiles, CAI

Beneficial Auction Services
Canby, Oregon

JillMarie has specialized in auctioneering at benefit auctions since 1996. JillMarie is a Competent Toastmaster (CTM), and has conducted seminars nationwide on the auction method of marketing for fundraising. JillMarie also works on an independent contractor basis for auto, estate and commercial auctions.

In 2001 in Boise, Idaho she captured the title of International Auctioneer Champion (IAC). In 2001-02 she traveled the United States as an ambassador and public speaker promoting the auction industry for National Auctioneers Association (NAA).

JillMarie graduated in 1998 from the Certified Auctioneers Institute (CAI), Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana. She has served on the Oregon Auctioneers Association (OAA) Board of Directors since 1997, and was elected President from 2002-04, and In 2002 she was elected to the National Auctioneers Association Foundation (NAF) Board of Trustees for a 3-year term.

JillMarie is an active member in her community with Kiwanis International, Locks of Love, The Make-A-Wish Foundation of Oregon, as well as, St. Jude and Doernbecher Children's Hospital.

JillMarie lives in Canby, Oregon. She can be contacted at 503-263-4747 and is also available online at www.BeneficialAuction.com or www.JillMarieWiles.com.

